Thursday, September 13th
Stockton College Campus Center Theatre

Registration is Free

If you are a business owner and/or aspiring entrepreneur, the New Jersey Business Action Center (BAC) wants you to know about the many programs and incentives available to help your business grow and thrive.

You are invited to join Lieutenant Governor Kim Guadagno for a meeting Thursday, September 13 to discuss how these incentives and programs can help you and how you can take advantage of them.

Joining Lt. Governor Guadagno will be representatives of the state agencies involved, including the BAC, the Economic Development Authority, Department of Labor and Workforce Development, the Division of Travel and Tourism, Department of the Treasury, the State Library, Board of Public Utilities, Small Business Development Center, the U.S. Energy Development Corporation and others. These representatives will be available for one-on-one discussions at the meeting.

This program is organized by the New Jersey Business Action Center and the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce, in conjunction with the New Jersey Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives, the Cape May County Chamber of Commerce, the Greater Atlantic City Chamber and the Greater Vineland Chamber of Commerce. The event is hosted by the Richard Stockton College.

Date: September 13, 2012

Time: 4 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
